In accordance with faculty policy, undergraduate students in good standing at the time of their death and who do not meet the requirements necessary to be awarded a posthumous degree may be recommended by the faculty of the College to receive a degree in memoriam. Hunter T. Awtrey, a 21-year-old student majoring in Finance, was in good academic standing and had 86 earned hours at the time of his death in July of this year.

Therefore, I request that Hunter T. Awtrey be awarded a Bachelor of Science in Memoriam.
