Joel --

Extending the options for Pass/No Credit this academic year also requires us to make temporary adjustments to our Dean's and Chancellor's List policy. I suggest we proceed in the same manner we did last Spring, in which students can be eligible for Dean's or Chancellor's List if they have earned at least 9 credit hours graded A, B or C (instead of 12). In the Spring, this change was approved by the FEC (acting on behalf of the Faculty Council).

The proposal is below:

Dean's and Chancellor's List

- The Faculty Executive Committee approves an exception to the Academic Policy allowing students to be eligible for Chancellor's List or Dean's List if they had earned at least 9 credit hours (instead of 12) in courses graded A, B, or C.
 - This allows students to accept a Pass (P) grade in some courses, as long as the student accepts letter grades in at least 9 credit hours. This exception applies only to the 2020-2021 academic year.

However you wish to proceed is fine (During New Business at FEC this week? Over email? Other?) Let me know if you have any questions.

- Leslie
