There were no questions or concerns about proposals A, C, E, F, G, H, I, J, K, and L, and they were left on the consent calendar to be approved.

Cynthia Hancock from Sociology told the Council that proposals B and N are courses that have been taught as topics courses and the programs are submitting them to have a permanent graduate number. These courses were left on the consent calendar to be approved.

Cox commented that line A6 in proposal D did not correctly list the program. He also noted that line A11b listed the required textbooks but did not explain the decision for choosing the textbooks. The course is also improperly listed as a 6000-level course instead of 8000, and the course is listed as every two years, but a semester was not specified. Lipford emailed the originator during the meeting and received answers to these questions. Secretary Jones will make the corrections.

Proposal M was compared to the syllabus and the Council agreed the proposal could remain on the consent calendar to be approved. Hall-Hertel told the council that there is a new syllabus template in the works.

Cox motioned to approve the proposal pending the corrections and Lipford seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

III. Report of the Dean – William Tolone

- a. Dean Tolone reported that he presented the new Graduate School Grant program to the college deans. The new program, which will be implemented in the fall, will apply to master's and certificate students. Colleges will have the freedom to determine the amount of the award, within the minimum and maximum amounts required by the award. Academic Year 2027 will be a transition year since the Graduate School will honor existing MTART obligations.
- b. Dean Tolone also reminded the council about the Graduate Education Summit on January 30, 2026 and encouraged everyone to attend.
